DALLAS (September 11, 2013) – Rising multi-faceted entertainer, humanitarian & entrepreneur Vincent “Heartbreak” Tucker graces the cover of AMPS magazine and gives his most in-depth personal interview to date.

In the cover story, the 30-year-old syndicated radio personality tugs on the heart strings of readers as he opens up about his heartbreaking childhood growing up which included surviving a 5-alarm house fire that claimed the lives of three (his grandparents & 7-year-old sister) when he was 9-years-old, dealing with his parents drug abuse and their abandoning him at the age of thirteen and much more.

“I’m not Heartbreak because I’m breaking the hearts of women, I’m Heartbreak because I came from the bottom, went through the trials and tribulations and I’m still here. Very few people alive have ever witnessed struggles that I’ve survived as a kid... God has special plans for me and I’m a living example of what God can deliver you from.” Vincent told AMPS.
